

CONTEMPORARY TEXTILE STUDIO CO-OP presents

Textile Talk by

India Flint

Not All Those Who Wander Are Lost - Travels with a Dye Pot

June 30, 2010 at 6:30 pm

The Textile Museum of Canada
55 Centre Ave., Toronto, ON

Internationally renowned natural plant dyer India Flint will give a lecture outlining her unique approach to bioregional dyeing, as well as her practical research into innovative natural dye techniques. She will show images of her dye process and textiles, as well as providing samples for viewing and discussion. India Flint will also lead a hands-on workshop entitled "Mapping Country" at the Contemporary Textile Studio Co-op. For more details visit www.textilestudio.ca.

Tickets: $11.00 (available at the door or in advance through the workroom, 416-534-5305)

www.textilestudio.ca
401 Richmond St. W., Studio 109
Toronto, ON, M5V 3A8

TEXTILE MUSEUM of CANADA
connecting cloth, culture & art

the workroom

